

Ana Teresa Ferronha

Human Movement System (Re)habilitation

Graduated in Physiotherapy from School of Health (ESS-P.Porto) in 1994, Ana Teresa Ferronha obtained her M.Sc. in Sports Science in 2009, with specialization in Motor Development by Faculty of Sport of the University of Porto (FADEUP). Currently, she is attending her Ph.D. in Physiotherapy at Faculty of Sport of the University of Porto (FADEUP) under the thesis theme "Evaluation of the variability of postural control in the first five months of life in infants at risk of postural plagiocephaly". In addition, possesses advanced training in children neurological rehabilitation. She is Physiotherapist at Santo António Local Health Unit, EPE; Assistant Professor at Jean Piaget School of Health in Vila Nova Gaia and Fernando Pessoa School of Health in Porto; Collaborator Researcher in the Human Movement Research Group of the INSIGHT Piaget Research Center, and is collaborating with the Center for Rehabilitation Research (CIR) in the Human Movement System (Re)habilitation Area.

ORCID: orcid.org/0000-0003-3065-4200

E-mail: anateresa.ferronha@hotmail.com