

Iria Da Cuña

Human Movement (Re)habilitation

Iria Da Cuña Carrera has a degree in Physiotherapy from the University of A Coruña(2008) and a PhD from the University of Málaga (2012). Obtained the Master's degrees in Management and Dependency and Disability Research (2009) and in Teaching in Secondary Education, Vocational Training and Language Teaching (2010), both from the University of A Coruña.

Professor at the Universidade de Vigo since september 2010, she obtained the position of Full Professor in 2023. She teaches Cardiorespiratory Physiotherapy, physiotherapy in lymphoedema and obstetrics and gynecology physiotherapy. He also teaches specialized continuing education courses.

In relation to his research activity, he is a member of the Group FS1-Physiotherapy. His scientific production includes the co-authorship of more than 90 scientific articles (15 included in the Journal Citation Reports) and more than 100 communications in national and international congresses.

ORCID: orcid.org/0000-0002-9507-789X

E-mail: iriadc@uvigo.es