

Patrícia Nogueira Pinto

Psychosocial Rehabilitation

Graduated in Speech Therapy by School of Health (E2S – P. Porto) in 2002, Patrícia Nogueira obtained her MSc in Speech Sciences (with the thesis “Phonological development in children aged 3 years and 6 months to 4 years and 6 months born with very low birth weight”) at Catholic University and Health School of Alcoitão in 2008 and her PhD in Education – Health branch (with the thesis: “Stress and Job satisfaction among speech therapists in Portugal: from diagnosis to education”) in the Portucalense University in 2014. Currently is a full Professor at Health School in Speech Therapy. Her main research interests are language disorders, speech disorders and psychosocial risks.

ORCID: 0000-0003-3379-0080

E-mail: pmn@ess.ipp.pt