

Bruno Vieira de Melo

Psychosocial Rehabilitation

Graduated in Occupational Therapy by School of Health (ESS-P. Porto) and with a Postgraduation in Sensory Integration for Occupational Therapists by Alcoitão School of Health Sciences (ESSA), Bruno Vieira de Melo obtained his Ph.D. in 2019 in Behavior and Educational Sciences, by the University of Vigo, Spain, what resulted in an essay on a new etiological theory of the Human Microbiome and Attention-Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder (Summa Cum Laude). Currently, he working as an Invited Assistant Professor in the Occupational Therapy Department at ESS-P. Porto, and as Coordinator and Occupational therapist practitioner in neurodevelopmental disorders at a Child development center. He's also collaborating with the Center for Rehabilitation Research in the in the Psychosocial Rehabilitation Area. His areas of interest include neurodevelopmental disorders, ADHD, virtual reality, human microbiome, and multisensory integration.

ORCID: 0000-0002-1543-6582

E-mail: bbm@ess.ipp.pt